Funeral of I.W. Lance-Corporal

The funeral will take place at Newport Parish Church on Monday, of 20-years-old Lance-Corporal Keith Adams, of the 1st Battalion, the Royal Hampshire Regiment, who was stationed with a motor transport unit at Munster, Germany.

Lance-Corporal Adams was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Adams, 20, Haskell Road, Parkhurst, and was a Regular soldier.

He was killed in a traffic accident near Kiel on Sunday, in which, it is understood, another soldier from Yorkshire was also killed, and three others seriously injured.

A driver, he had been stationed in Germany for about six months. He had previously served for 14 months in Malaya.
