

William Newman Biles

1901 census, 15 Carisbrooke Road, Newport

William N Biles	Head	40	Butcher's Manager	Southampton, Hampshire
Flora Biles	Wife	40		Southampton, Hampshire
William M Biles	Son	19	Butcher's Shopman	Southampton, Hampshire
Mary A Biles	Daughter	13		Southampton, Hampshire
Ernest W Wealthy	Boarder	22	Grocer's Assistant	London
Elizabeth Daish	Servant	16	General Servant	Newport, Isle of Wight
Dorothy Macdonald	Visitor	7		Southampton, Hampshire

Isle of Wight County Press – 25 May 1907

NEWPORT

OBITUARY. – The death occurred on Wednesday morning, after a long illness, of William Newman Biles, the local manager for 15 years of Messrs. Eastmans, Limited, of High-street, who was well-known and respected in business and sporting circles in the Island, as well as in friendly society quarters. Much sympathy is felt with the widow and son of deceased in their bereavement. Deceased, who lived at 15, West-end Terrace, was in his 50th year.

Isle of Wight County Press – 1 June 1907

NEWPORT

THE FUNERAL – of the late Mr. William N. Biles, the well-known local manager of Messrs. Eastmans, Ltd., whose death we announced last week, took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Monday last, the Rev. J. W. Danford officiating. The family mourners and friends included Mrs. Biles (widow), Mr. W. M. Biles (son), Mr. J. Ward (brother-in-law) and Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wyatt, Mr. Jackson (district manager of Eastmans, Ltd.), and several of the Island managers of the firm. Those also present included Messrs. W. Peachey, W. Holloway, E. Dyson, E. Warne, H. Dyson, and A. Mitchell, Messrs. B. S. Gould, N.G., and H. Prouten (Oddfellows), Messrs. F. D. Shields and W. Scadding (Conservative Club), Mr. C. Goater, Mr. B. Osborn, and others.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2024
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>