NEWPORT

DEATH OF MR. E. G. EDMUNDS. - We regret to have to record the death of Mr. E. G. Edmunds, of this town, which took place early on Wednesday morning in consequence of the rupture of a blood vessel in the head. Mr. Edmunds was educated for the law, of the complexities of which he was a great admirer, but on his marriage with the daughter of the late Mr. Whitcombe he took to the business conducted by that gentleman from which he retired a few years ago. Mr. Edmunds was a thorough-going Liberal, but though he always took a keen interest in politics he abstained from taking any public position. He was however for some years a director of the old Newport Water Company, and up to the time of his death the treasurer of the Unitarian Christian Church, to which place of worship he was warmly attached. Throughout his life the deceased gentleman exhibited qualities which won for him the warm regard of a wide circle of friends, by whom his death is deeply deplored. The funeral takes place at Carisbrooke at 2.30 on Monday.
