Death of Mr. C. L. Holbrook.--The death occurred at 29 Hunnyhill on Friday week of Mr. Charles Linington Holbrook, aged 70, who had been employed by Messrs. Wray and Sons as a vanman for 23 years and was formerly a member of the Salvation Army Band. He was very well known and highly respected and sympathy is extended to the widow and family. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the service at the Salvation Army Citadel being conducted by Major Buxton, of Branksome, Bournemouth. Miss B. Stagg was at the organ and the hymns were "The Lord is my shepherd" and "Rock of Ages." The mourners were Messrs. E., C., W., and B. Holbrook (sons), Mr. and Mrs. S. Jolliffe, Mrs. A. Lindsay, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Rowe (sons-in-law and daughters), Mesdames E. and C. Holbrook (daughters-in-law), Miss Wilford (sister-in-law), Mrs. W. Smy (niece), Messrs. C. Jolliffe, R. Lindsay, and K. and B. Holbrook (grandsons), and Mrs. A. Ward. Others attending included Mesdames, Cook, Mackett, Stagg, Downer, and E. Coombes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rugg, Misses Cook, K. Rolf, F. Downer, and D. Toogood, and Messrs. R. Young and A. Jeffery (representing Messrs. Wray and Sons), F. Cook, P. Pragnell, and A. C. King. The interment was at Carisbrooke Cemetery. The widow was unable to attend. Messrs. O. C. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements.
