Mrs. A. H. Stark. — The funeral service took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery for Mrs. Annie Henrietta Stark of Upper St. Cross Farm, Dodnor, Newport. The Rev. J. F. Buckettt conducted the service. Mrs. Stark was born at Westminster, London, and came to the Island as a Land-Girl during the first war. She was a widow of the late W. M. T. Stark. She made daily deliveries of milk by horse drawn milk-float in the Newport area. A keen horsewoman in her younger days, Mrs. Stark was also a past member of the National Farmers' Union. For the last ten years she lived in New Zealand, and only returned in September of last year. Mourners included Mr. and Mrs. E. Stark (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. R. Stark and Mr. D. Stark (grandsons also representing Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Stark, son and daughter-in-law), Mr. W. Stark (grandson), Mesdames T. Krebs and P. Mansell (grand-daughters), Mr. E. Yallop and Mr. W. Faulkner (nephews), Mrs B. Miller, Mr. R. B. Stay, and Mr and Mrs. Aitchison.

Messrs. Hamilton and Marshall made the arrangements.
