NEWPORT

THE LATE MISS AMY WILLCOX. – The funeral of the late Miss Amy Willcox, of the Lilliputian Warehouse, at 57 High-street, whose lamented death at her residence in Castle-road, at the age of 53, was recorded in our last issue, took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Monday afternoon, amid many manifestations of sorrowful respect, which bore touching testimony to the deceased lady's many estimable qualities and to the high regard in which she was held by those amongst whom she had lived and so usefully laboured for upwards of 20 years. The chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willcox (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. William F. Murphy (sister and brother-in-law), Messrs. William and Frank Murphy (nephews), Miss Muriel Murphy and Mrs. Percy Stokes (nieces), Miss Mabel Scott (manager, 57 High-street), Miss Nance (milliner, 57 High-street) Mr. James Eldridge (solicitor), 24 young lady employees at 57 High-street, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Hayles, and many old friends. The Vicar of Newport (the Rev. H. Edmund Sharpe) officiated both in the church and at the graveside. There were many beautiful floral tributes of respect and sympathy touchingly inscribed. ... Messrs. H. and F. Damp carried out the funeral arrangements.
